

THE EASTMINSTER SCROLL

Warning us why so few will be saved.

*“Unless you change and become like little children,
you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”*

– Matthew 18:3

So why are so few saved? Why does no one listen? Why are so many blinded?
Why do fleeting years become a lifetime without the change needed for salvation?

The answer is inside this scroll.
And yet, you hesitate.

For those who listen, who act, who repent, there awaits a heaven beyond comprehension.

It will be the most blissful, awe inspiring experience any soul could ever know, an everlasting joy that transcends space and echoes through eternity.

Every soul will be whole. Radiant. There will be no confusion, no inequality of understanding, only perfect clarity and wisdom shared by all.

We will live, worship, and work in perfect harmony, united in purpose, overflowing with joy. Like children who cannot wait to arrive and never wish to leave, the children of God will thrive in divine rhythm glorifying King Jesus our God.

But you and many more will not be there, unless you repent and change!

- Della Rue, Guardian of the Scroll
